Mount Sinai Monastery

The Greek Orthodox monastery of the God-trodden Mount Sinai is located at the very place where God appeared to Moses in the Burning Bush, beneath the Mount of the Decalogue. In the providence of God, it is at this site also that the holy relics of Saint Catherine are enshrined. In the oldest continuously inhabited Christian monastery, with a history that can be traced back over seventeen centuries. The monastery predates the divisions of the Christian world, its origins extending to late antiquity.

The monastery has never been destroyed in all its history, and thus it can be said to have preserved intact the distinctive qualities of its Greek and Roman heritage. Members of other Christian confessions have honoured the monastery, coming as pilgrims to this holy place. But from its beginnings, the Christian inhabitants of Sinai belonged to the Greek speaking world, and it has remained so to this day.

The earliest description refers to the Monastery of the Holy Virgin, for the revelation of God at the Burning Bush was seen as a type of the Virgin Mary and the Incarnation. The monastery is also especially dedicated to the holy prophets Moses and Elias, who both came to this mountain, and

More than one hundred and seventy Sinai saints are honoured by the Church. In addition to Saint Catherine, these include Saint John Climacus, abbot of Sinai and author of The Ladder of Divine Ascent. They also include the ascetic fathers Hesychios and Philothous, two saints venerated in the West; Anastasius, Gregory of Sinai (who transplanted the Hesychast traditions to the West); Symeon Pentelopoulos (who translated relics of Saint Catherine to Rouen, establishing the veneration of Saint Catherine in the West).

Spiritual inheritance

The monastery can be thought of as a veritable Ark for its spiritual treasures, manuscripts and early printed books preserved in the Sinai library, which include the most important collection of pre-iconoclastic icons in the world for the antiquity and importance of its volumes. It also includes the greatest beauty and significance dating from the time of the Copto-Greek iconoclasts.

The monastery has been honoured by rulers throughout history, including Helena, the Emperor Justinian, Mohammed the Founder, Catherine of Russia, and Napoleon Bonaparte. Contem-
